Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Save The Bay is working with partners to restore Bay habitat on a grand scale, through effective policies and sound science, by securing the necessary funding and enlisting volunteers. This is how we will re-establish 100,000 acres of restored tidal marsh and key transition zones to benefit endangered species and shoreline communities. This is our path to a San Francisco Bay that is resilient to climate change. We continued to support the outreach and organizational efforts of the San Francisco Bay Restoration Authority, a regional agency that allocates public funding for wetland restoration from proceeds of regional Measure AA. We provided information to policymakers and the public about additional Bay wetland restoration needs, and opportunities to accelerate restoration in advance of climate change and sea level rise, including through the provision of additional (continued on Schedule O)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Education and Outreach - Save The Bay continues to shape the public agenda, by informing public opinion and achieving policy victories for a healthy Bay. This is our path to achieving transformational change that benefits the Bay for generations to come. We provided information on San Francisco Bay and its needs to the general public and our members, and engaged them to help advance our mission, through mail and email communications, social networking, educational events and volunteer opportunities. We produced the third annual region-wide Bay Day one day every year when Bay Area residents can celebrate and experience the Bay with anchor events in Palo Alto, Redwood City and Oakland, and shoreline experiences for many more participants through partner events. Thousands of people accessed educational information about the Bay on our updated and redesigned (continued on Schedule O)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Bay Smart Communities - Save The Bay is pursuing ecologically sound and equitable development policies, to meet the challenge of a growing Bay Area in ways that benefit the Bay and build support for the Bay among the regions fastest growing populations. To promote Bay Smart communities we will lead cities to meet new standards for sustainability and employ green infrastructure. This is our path toward a healthy Bay and vibrant Bay Area. Save The Bay provided information to regional residents and key policymakers about threats from new federal officials to the Bay and the laws that protect the Bay and its fish and wildlife. To promote Bay Smart Communities, we published and promoted best practices for urban development of infrastructure, including transportation and housing, that protects the Bay from impacts of regional population growth and climate (continued on Schedule O)

Supplemental Information

| Return Reference | Explanation |
|-----------------------|--|
| Part X FIN48 Footnote | Income TaxesFinancial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, the Organization is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Organization and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold, the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold. Management believes that the Organization has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of September 30, 2018 the Organization does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary. The Organization has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. This exemption is subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that the Organization continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. The Organization receives unrelated business income (sublease rental income) which requires the Organization to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Tax liabilities, if any exist, are accrued at the statutory tax rates in effect at the end of the fiscal year. |
