Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Global Development and Exchange - For more than twenty-five years, World Learning has worked to bridge the gap between the desire for human development and the ability to achieve that goal. This year, in more than 20 countries around the globe, our programs build the capacity of individuals, communities, and institutions to take ownership of their own development, secure just and effective policies and structures, and create sustainable positive change. Activities include training activists in Myanmar, teaching nurses in Malawi, supporting Tech Camps for youth in Algeria, assisting primary schools in Lebanon, and supporting STEM education in Egypt. Each year in the US we provide more than 2,000 youth and professionals from 144 different countries with exchange and training programs on a variety of subjects, including business, education, agriculture, media, politics, health, and leadership. Our approach to development employs strong local partnerships and uses experiential methods grounded in the organization's more than 80 years of teacher training to provide the tools needed for improved awareness and attitudes aligned with enhanced knowledge and skills. Our theory of change is grounded in the belief that these tools can be and will be applied and reapplied to address the most pressing global and local development challenges of youth leadership, workforce development, the marginalization of disadvantaged groups, literacy and access to quality education, and government accountability. World Learning's core competencies are 1) Education, 2) Youth Leadership, 3) International Exchange, and 4) Local Institutional Strengthening & Training. We are funded by various private and institutional donors including the US Department of State and the United States Agency for International Development. Study Abroad - A pioneer in experiential, field-based study abroad, WL offers semester, summer, and custom term programs for undergraduate students in over 35 countries worldwide, as well as comparative programs in multiple locations. Our program mission: Prepare students to be inter-culturally effective leaders, professionals, and citizens. In doing so, WL fosters a worldwide network of individuals and organizations committed to responsible global citizenship. Study Abroad fulfills this mission with field-based accredited academic study abroad programs for undergraduates. The Study Abroad experience includes rigorous academic programs through a field-based, experiential approach, undergraduate research through Independent Study Project Case Studies, cultural immersion through fieldwork, intensive language classes, and urban and rural home stays with local families, a small group of students in each program, supported by WL faculty and staff, home-stay families, in-country experts, and community members, and, a commitment to reciprocity as the foundation of our educational philosophy. Over 2,000 students from 250-plus U.S. colleges and universities study in over 25 countries each year. SIT Independent Study Projects often lead to advanced research including Fulbright and Watson fellowships. Learn more at <https://studyabroad.sit.edu/about/>

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

International Honors Programs - International Honors Program (IHP), a program within World Learning/Study Abroad, offers undergraduate students a unique comparative learning opportunity to analyze and contrast today's global conditions, evaluate issues and challenges, and compare solutions across countries and cultures. IHP participants study issues relating to public health, the environment, globalization, urban planning, governance, social justice, and human rights. Learn more about IHP at <https://studyabroad.sit.edu/programs/ihp-comparative-programs/>

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

The Experiment in International Living - World Learning's founding program has been offering immersive cross-cultural exchanges, fun and thought-provoking adventures, and experiential learning programs since 1932. Today, EIL provides three-to-five-week summer programs for high school students in over 25 countries worldwide. The program's mission: create meaningful, dynamic experiences for students eager to challenge themselves and engage their sense of global citizenry. Each program is an authentic journey challenging participants to develop a close connection with the people and culture of another country. Through home stays, community service, language training, outdoor adventure, art, and experiential learning, students build leadership and communication skills, gain essential international experience, increase self-confidence, and enhance global awareness. The Experiment has introduced more than 70,000 young people to international issues. Annually, over $1.5 million in scholarships are funded by the philanthropic generosity of former Experimenters and other World Learning supporters. Learn more at <https://www.experiment.org/>

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	World Learning's Endowment Fund is a long-term financial resource for World Learning and the execution of its mission. On an annual basis the Fund provides important financial resources to World Learning, primarily in the forms of 1) scholarship funding for participants in its academic and exchange programs and, 2) support for programs, new initiatives, and field projects.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	World Learning has been recognized as public charities generally exempt from federal income taxation under provisions of Section 501(a) as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") of 1986, as amended. The organization is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. Certain of World Learning's foreign subsidiaries are organized as taxable entities in their respective countries. World Learning has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. World Learning follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the consolidated financial statements if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The tax years ending June 30, 2019, 2018, 2017 and 2016 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes. World Learning has determined that as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. In addition, World Learning has not recorded a provision for income taxes as it has no material tax liability from unrelated business income activities.
