SDHC is a resource for policymakers, providing research summaries, issue briefs and case studies to inform policy decisions. At the federal level, SDHC provided educational information for congressional representatives on the local impact of federally proposed changes to availability of state administrative waivers to the SNAP/CalFresh program, including 1. modified categorical eligibility which allows states to expand the CalFresh income test from 130 to 200 FPL 2. Able Bodied Adults Without Dependents the federal rule would have made it more challenging for adults without children to receive CalFresh and 3. Public Charge this federal rule made/would make it more challenging for immigrant families to feel comfortable accessing CalFresh. At the state level, SDHC supported the successful passage of the following two bills 1. shelter expense deductions reducing required paperwork for CalFresh applicants by no longer having to submit a utility bill as a part of the application process and 2. food bank tax credit expanding the types of people that can be eligible for a tax credit for donating food to include harvesters, packers and processors.
