Name: Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Federation's largest endeavor is to allocate funds to a network of nearly 70 agencies in the Chicago area that provide assistance to 500,000 Chicagoans of all faiths, including hot meals and groceries, utility and rent assistance, prescriptions and medical care for impoverished families, job training and placement for people who are out of work, therapeutic school and specialized care for children with disabilities, support services for Holocaust survivors, assisted living, specialized Alzheimer's care and transportation for seniors, respite services for caregivers of frail seniors and people with disabilities, counseling, prevention and intervention services for troubled teens, and an entire continuum of prevention and therapeutic services for individuals and families in crisis. Because the Jewish United Fund of Metropolitan Chicago and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago are so closely linked in numerous ways (combined Board of Directors, shared professional staff, shared office space, etc.), and because JUF provides an annual, multi-million dollar allocation to the Jewish Federation, we measure and report our program and service results jointly for the combined JUF/Federation enterprise, which are summarized below.

2018 IMPACT PROVIDING HUMAN SERVICES: Local - 584,744 meals, food bags and grocery cards were delivered to needy local Jews - 5,747 households received $7.45 million in emergency financial aid to pay for housing, healthcare and other critical needs - a 25% increase in dollars and a 7% increase in the number of people helped over 2017 - 2,000 Holocaust survivors maximized their independence through in-home services, emergency financial assistance, group support, advocacy and socialization - 2,256 people with disabilities received intensive, holistic support - 1,749 workers benefited from job placement services, including 503 workers who secured paid jobs - 39,935 individuals received free or highly-subsidized mental and physical healthcare - 384 low-income families received free or subsidized legal assistance - 30,403 Jews from across the world began new lives of freedom in Israel - 17,849 new olim were assisted with absorption services, job preparation & placement, language skills, housing and socialization to help them integrate into Israeli society - 6,500 disadvantaged Israeli youth in Kiryat Gat-Lachish-Shafir were immersed in holistic enrichment and educational programming designed to close the socioeconomic gap and ensure their future success - 87,842 impoverished elderly throughout the countries of the former Soviet Union received food, medicine and heating fuel to sustain them.

2018 IMPACT CULTIVATING JEWISH LEARNING, IDENTITY, & CONNECTION: 15,897 children and youth engaged in Jewish learning and built stronger Jewish identities through formal and informal Jewish educational experiences - 3,189 (73%) of Jewish day school students received scholarships and/or tuition assistance - 1,159 children received nearly $800,000 in Jewish summer camp scholarships - 972 children received $1.5 million in financial assistance or subsidies for Jewish early childhood educational experiences - 9,952 families with young children received free, monthly Jewish books and music through JUF's PJ Library and PJ Our Way programs - 3,400 teens connected to community through JUF-supported programs focused on engaging the next generation - 1,813 Jewish young adults went on free trips to Israel courtesy of JUF Birthright Israel, strengthening their connection to the Jewish homeland - 851 youth and young adults received JUF-supported scholarships that helped them afford pivotal educational experiences in Israel - 58 college students participated in interfaith leadership trips to Israel - 150 students participated in Onward Israel internships over the summer - 58 participants from area high schools engaged in Write-On for Israel, an intensive, two-year Israel advocacy training program for upperclassmen - 500 teens studied Hebrew at Chicago-area public high schools - the most of any city in the nation - 7,800 students and community members participated in pro-Israel college events and Israel advocacy programs through JUF's Israel Education Center and Hillel - 6,575 college students participated in Jewish life on Illinois campuses - 4,600 young adults attended JUF-sponsored education, advocacy, fundraising and outreach events, setting them on the path to Jewish involvement - 950 Russian-speaking young professionals and 376 young families were engaged in 111 customized Jewish projects, programs or events to connect with each other, the broader Jewish community, and their own Jewish identity - 10,136 Jews of all ages volunteered through JUF's TOV Volunteer Network, other JUF programs and throughout our network of Jewish communal agencies - for a total of 143,214 volunteer hours of hands-on assistance from serving meals to people in need to tutoring at-risk children - 96,000 visitors came to Oy!Chicago, the outreach blog for local 20- to 30-somethings.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Refugee Social Service Program - The Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago administers all refugee social services on behalf of the state of Illinois. The Illinois Refugee Social Service Consortium is comprised of 10 direct service agencies committed to providing quality refugee social services including Employment, Cultural Adjustment, Case Management, Mental Health, Senior Services and School Adjustment Services for Kindergarten to 12th grade to refugees from around the world. Contracts are funded through a combination of federal and state resources. The Federation's program responsibilities have evolved over time to include agency monitoring, program coordination and planning, development of program policy, including NOFO development and management of the procurement process, technical assistance, financial management, data collection and reporting, and creation and maintenance of an online Salesforce database.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Hillels of Illinois - Federation supports a vast array of Jewish activities for students at colleges, universities and professional schools in Illinois. The Hillel program provides opportunities for Jewish students to explore and celebrate their Jewish identity at 16 different college campuses in Illinois, as well as through Hillel Regional programs. Hillel's vision is a world where every Jewish student is inspired to make an enduring commitment to Jewish life, learning and Israel. Hillel seeks to enrich the lives of Jewish students so that they may enrich the Jewish people and the world. Hillel seeks to create a pluralistic, welcoming and inclusive environment for Jewish college students - an environment where students are encouraged to grow intellectually, spiritually and socially. Increasingly, Hillel must help Jewish students counter campaigns by the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement to delegitimize and demonize Israel, and to address the concomitant increase in campus anti-Semitism.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Federation's tax-exempt purposes, such as unrelated business income allocated from investment partnerships, is subject to taxation. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Federation may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Federation and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. At June 30, 2019 and 2018, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. The Federation files Forms 990 and 990-T in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois. The Federation is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before fiscal year 2016.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Grants made by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago (The Federation) in the United States are monitored through an extensive process involving professionals and nearly 200 volunteers that includes submission of budgetary and programmatic information as well as face to face meetings with many of the grant recipients. The process entails submission and review of fiscal information (including updated budgets and audits) as well as program specific information including outcome measures when appropriate. Grants made to the Federation are then allocated to various affiliated agencies which have a long relationship with the Federation and notwithstanding this, both lay and professional leadership continue to assess the use of grants that are provided to them. The review is accompanied by face to face visits in which programs funded by the Federation are reviewed. The Federation also takes advantage of information that the grantees provide to accrediting and other funding bodies. In addition, the majority of grants presented on Schedule I are distributions made from Donor Advised Funds where the donor recommends grants to a variety of 501(c)(3) organizations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The Jewish Federation has agreed to provide Steven Nasatir with a split dollar $1,000,000 insured death benefit. The insurance is designed so that upon Steven Nasatir's death, the Federation will receive a benefit equal to all of the premiums paid. The life insurance benefit is provided tax free to Steven Nasatir so there is an additional cash payment to Steven Nasatir each year to cover the taxes on the PS58 costs as well as the taxes grossed up. Social club dues are paid on behalf of appropriate employees conducting business at a private city club. The social club dues are a non-taxable benefit. No country club dues are paid by the organization.
