Name: The Advocates For Human Rights

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Refugee and Immigrant Rights The Advocates provides legal representation to asylum seekers and immigrants in the Upper Midwest and around the United States With pro bono assistance from hundreds of attorneys, The Advocates is the primary legal service provider to low-income asylum seekers in Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota The Advocates has expanded legal services to include services for youth who are victims of labor trafficking During FY 2019, The Advocates provided pro bono representation and support to over 1,600 asylum seekers, unaccompanied minor immigrants, detained immigrants and survivors of human trafficking In addition to legal services, the organization advocates for legal reform and works to help better integrate our newest residents into our communities

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Research, Education and Advocacy The Advocates investigates, documents, and exposes human rights abuses globally Locally, The Advocates continues to lead efforts in Minnesota to prevent and respond to human trafficking, developing protocol guidelines for the State of Minnesota to help communities identify and respond to victims of labor trafficking and exploitation as well as a strategic plan for the State of Minnesota to respond to adult victims of sex trafficking The Advocates creatively works to educate students, new Americans, policy makers, lawyers, teachers, and the general public by bringing international human rights principles to the community and classroom The Advocates 1) develops and distributes curricular resources, publications, and reports, 2) conducts presentations, lectures, film series, conferences, continuing education courses, and public forums, and 3) provides resources online through two unique websites

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Womens Human Rights The Advocates has more than 20 years of experience working with partners in Minnesota and around the world to document problems in the government response to violence against women. The Advocates works to end violence against women by changing laws and their implementation, as well as through trainings, advocacy, and monitoring and documentation of human rights abuses against women, including domestic violence, rape and sexual assault, employment discrimination, sexual harassment in the workplace, and trafficking in women and girls. WATCH, the premier court monitoring and judicial policy organization, is now a project of The Advocates, enhancing protections for women in Minnesota and opportunities for training and technical assistance for The Advocates global womens human rights partners.
