Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
The Law Foundation of Silicon Valley ("Law Foundation") uses the law as a tool for change to address problems linked to social injustices like poverty, discrimination, and child abuse. Law Foundation's attorneys, social workers and advocates craft innovative solutions to the life-changing legal issues facing low income people and families in Silicon Valley. Our team of over 80 attorneys, social workers, and staff provide people with access to safe and affordable housing, help secure stable homes for abused and neglected children, and address a number of other issues including discrimination, domestic violence, special education access, disability rights and human trafficking. In addition to our direct client representation, we litigate and advocate for policy changes that improve the lives of low-income people and families across our region. The majority of our clients are low-income and our legal services are free of charge.

Name: Law Foundation of Silicon Valley

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Law Foundation of Silicon Valley focuses on three areas housing, children & youth, and health (including mental health) throughout Silicon Valley, predominantly in Santa Clara County The Law Foundation's 80-plus attorneys, social workers and staff, together with volunteers, serve more than 10,000 individuals and families throughout Silicon Valley each year Our children and youth program advance the legal rights of our youngest clients, including those in foster care, empowering them to lead healthy and productive lives We listen to, advise, and advocate for disadvantaged children and youth to ensure their voices are heard and their rights are protected

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Our health program empowers people with physical or mental health disabilities to live more independent, secure, and satisfying lives through the enforcement of their legal rights and the advancement of their social and economic well-being. Our program helps stabilize the lives of individuals coping with chronic or life-threatening health conditions by providing comprehensive legal services regarding access to healthcare benefits, fair housing and employment-related issues.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Our housing program works to ensure that all people may freely choose a place to live without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, source of income, disability, operation of a home daycare or whether they have children in their family. Our programs are holistic and work together to address complex legal issues, often with the involvement of our social worker and community worker teams. Our direct services work in all our program areas informs our system change efforts. This means that when we see similar cases or client experiences, we work to address the root cause of that issue to impact a greater number of people throughout our region.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Law Foundation is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Law Foundation in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Law Foundation's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
