Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Member services - NWHN members receive newsletters, fact sheets, electronic updates, invitations to participate in advocacy campaigns to improve health policy and periodic mailings with information about important issues in women's health Member advocacy campaigns have successfully influenced federal and state regulatory and funding decisions, including the recent decision by the federal government to require insurers to cover women's preventive services with no extra fees Members also receive renewal notices through the mail

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Raising Women's Voices for the Health Care We Need - A national project working to make sure women's voices are heard in the health reform debate and women's concerns are addressed by policymakers developing national and state health reform plans Raising Women's Voices is a collaborative project created by the National Women's Health Network, the Women's Health Program of Community Catalyst and the Black Women's Health Imperative

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Health Policy Activities The NWHN researches general and specific health issues relating to women and develops and disseminates recommendations upon which public policy can be based The organization's main areas of focus are the safety of drugs, devices and medical procedures used by women, reproductive health, and access to care that meets the needs of women in all their diversities NWHN's recent significant accomplishments include the inclusion of contraceptive coverage with no extra fees in the insurance plans of 63 million women, saving the FDA Office of Women's Health from threatened defunding, and, the drop in the number of women who develop heart attacks and breast cancer Breast cancer rates fell by over 16,000 women a year and heart attacks rates fell by nearly 25,000 women a year, most likely because millions of women stopped taking menapause hormone therapy when research showed it could increase their risks of these conditions Women learned about the risks posed by hormone therapy because of the NWHN's successful advocacy for the Women's Health Initiative, the largest long-term study of older women's health ever conducted
