Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see the instructions for Part III)

Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
 To empower refugees through education, life skills and social support, helping families acclimate to life in America and to get to know their community.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Summer Camp: Served 75 kids, 20 refugees, 15 immigrant and scholarship kids 2019. Camp gives children of different backgrounds a chance to integrate and learn about their world through trauma informed activities, lectures and safe spaces. During this time, close attention is paid to children with refugee backgrounds to help integrate them into society and allow them a chance to feel part of something special.
 (Grants $ 24,750) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here

29 Bake Sales: 12-20 women These events are held once every two months for refugee women. It is a chance for women to sell homemade goods to supplement their incomes while learning how to engage with customers, budget money, learn business techniques and integrate with people they may generally never get to talk to. We have seen an increase in confidence among these women and a chance for them to feel like they are contributing to the success of their family.
 (Grants $ 20,011) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here

30 Direct assistance: 20-30 families This program is based on need and works mainly on an emergency basis. The major asks have been for the following Rental assistance Medical assistance Food assistance Recreational items bikes, toys, etc Clothing and home items including furniture Utility and car payments School/Tuition/books Driving instruction
 (Grants $ 6,497) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here

Untangled: 50 benefited persons. Untangled is a psycho/social program that is run by Dr. Omar Reda. We have monthly potlucks that provide a social network for the families along with assessment of mental health needs. We are working on expanding this program to send mental health workers to homes on a weekly or monthly basis.
