Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization’s mission:

PAI conducts research and educational activities that bring transparency to influential public sector and private sector institutions and their key relationships. PAI also develops a free, open source tool for documenting these relationships, LittleSis.org.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 165,128 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

LittleSis: PAI maintains LittleSis.org, an open, public database and research platform that brings transparency to influential networks in the public and private sector. The database aggregates public information on over 380,000 influential individuals and institutions, ranging from public officials to large corporations, and over 1,600,000 relationships among them, ranging from employment relationships to campaign contributions. Volunteer editors contribute well-sourced data to LittleSis and build maps of power networks. In 2019-2020, LittleSis data expanded significantly, with over 80,000 new entities added to the database. The site was used and cited regularly by activists, researchers and journalists at academic, media, and public interest organizations, in the US and internationally, garnering significant media coverage and supporting groundbreaking investigations and high-impact grassroots campaigns.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 330,256 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Research: PAI’s research program investigates issues of corporate and government accountability and brings transparency to the role of powerful public sector and private sector institutions in shaping public policy. PAI releases research in the form of reports, articles, infographics, and data sets. PAI’s research has garnered significant media coverage and prompted major transparency and accountability measures at public and private institutions. The influence of the finance and oil and gas industries is a major focus of PAI’s research, as well as corporate power on the regional and state level. In 2019-2020, our investigations of issues such as Wall Street speculation, hedge funds profiting from Puerto Rican debt, fossil fuel industry influence, the revolving door between business and government, corporate subsidies and tax dodging, and money in politics received major media coverage and drove significant public accountability efforts.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 123,846 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Training: PAI trains journalists, activists, and researchers in how to conduct power research using LittleSis.org and other tools and methodologies. The goal of this work is to cultivate more journalistic, civic, and movement capacity to research and challenge influential networks in the public and private sector. We conduct trainings in person and online via webinar, and offer them independently and in partnership with progressive organizations. In 2019-2020, as part of our "Map the Power" training initiative, we conducted numerous trainings on topics such as how to research your college or university’s endowment, how to research publicly-held corporations, how to research foundations and nonprofits, how to research real estate companies and landlords, and to how to research political contributions on the local, state, and federal level. We also continued to organize and train research groups focused on researching power at the local and regional level.
