Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	An annual report is required from all organizations that have received a grant from the organization, which is reviewed by staff and then reviewed with the Board of Directors. The report requires a narrative and financial account (in U.S. Dollars) of what was accomplished by the expenditure of the grant funds during the period covered by the grant. To ensure compliance by grantees, they are required to sign a grant contract that binds them to provide a report on activities performed with the grant. The organization holds multiple telephonic conference calls to discuss programs among grantees and uncover challenges and successes. In addition, the organization holds one in-person conference which all grantees are required to attend. MAZON also uses site visits, phone calls, emails and letter communications to monitor the grantees' activities and expenditures.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization's Mission (Continued)	For more than 30 years, MAZON has been committed to ensuring that vulnerable people have access to the resources they need to be able to put food on the table. MAZON is a leading voice in the United States and in Israel, on anti-hunger issues, especially those that involve populations or problems that have been previously overlooked or ignored. MAZON recognized the importance of ensuring that food insecure Americans and Israelis have access to nutritious food now, while also working to develop and advance long-term solutions to hunger.
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a- Program Service Accomplishments(Continued)	MAZON uses a number of strategies to accomplish its mission, including surface and spotlight overlooked issues: working with and listening to its broad network of anti-hunger, social justice, and Jewish community partners, MAZON identifies overlooked issues and vulnerable populations and funds policy solutions that meet unmet needs. We spotlight these issues, elevating them to the level of national conversation and placing them on the national policy agenda. Education: MAZON works to educate key stakeholders, such as policymakers, partners, the public, and media, building new partnerships and coalitions where necessary and valuable to build awareness about hunger in America and Israel, bolster understanding about overlooked issues and populations, and engage the Jewish and anti-hunger communities in policy change work to address hunger. Advocacy: MAZON practices and promotes advocacy as a means for ensuring not only that food reaches those who are hungry today, but also that no one goes hungry tomorrow. Our bipartisan advocacy work, through policymaker education and shaping legislation on the Federal and State levels, helps to ensure that government programs are responsive to every person in need of food assistance and the unique barriers underserved populations face. Capacity building: MAZON provides funding, technical assistance, trainings, and other resources to nonprofit organizations in some of the most food insecure states in America, and throughout Israel, building leadership capacity within the anti-hunger and Jewish communities to participate in advocacy. MAZON's partners work at the local, state, and national levels to remove barriers to participation in food assistance programs and champion responsible government policies to prevent widespread hunger in the future.
