We envision a country of young people working as active and effective citizens to collectively rebuild our American democracy. GC teaches teenagers how to take effective political action. Through an innovative in-class curriculum, students work with local leaders to fix local problems. Through this real-world experience, our teens are building an active democracy. Our innovative, action-based program will revolutionize civics education in this country. Despite the impact of COVID-19, Generation Citizen was able to deliver training to 21, 400 students, engaging 364 teachers and 173 college volunteers across six sites and remote partnerships in the 2019-2020 school year. We also worked rapidly to transfer our curriculum and training programs for teachers to virtual format, to ensure that we could effectively serve school partners in the fall of 2020. In Utah, we and coalition partners helped pass House Bill 334 which provided for teacher professional development and civic engagement projects. We also developed our Kick Start Action Civics free online mini training for teachers. In FY 20, 2,143 teachers from 49 states participated in KSAC, and 98% said they would recommend it to colleagues. Generation Citizen also co-led a national Equity in Civics Coalition with a steering committee of experts across the country and published new white papers and resources on civics learning.
