Facts And Circumstances Test

Return Reference	Explanation
10 Facts and Circumstances Test Part II line 17a or 17b	Missouri Health Care for All maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public. The organization solicits funds from supporters statewide through special fundraising events, 3-4 annual direct mail appeals, and 2-4 online appeals each year. In 2020 we sent the following direct mail appeals: Spring Appeal to 3,705 people and Year-End Appeal to 3,903 people. Our supporter list, to which we send our fundraising appeals, is open to the general public, and we regularly recruit community members to the list through online activity and community outreach events. In addition, we engage in fundraising through events, our website, and individual meetings with supporters who are not related to the organization or its leadership. A total of 525 individuals donated in 2020. Because we are a fairly young organization and because we focus on engaging low- and middle-income community members, most of our donors do not give large gifts. However, our work to engage these community members through both volunteerism and fundraising has attracted large grants from a handful of foundation funders. As a result, the actual funds received from these foundations is large compared to the actual funds received from the hundreds of individuals who make gifts ranging from $1 to $500. Our governing body represents the broad interests of the public and represents a broad cross-section of Missouri citizens, including clergy, nonprofit employees, active and retired medical providers, business owners, and impacted consumers. Our board has diversity in age, race, religion, geography, and socioeconomic status to ensure the voices of Missouri's diverse public are represented. The services we provide to ensure that all Missourians are able to access health care are directly for the benefit of the general public, and we engage members of the general public as volunteers throughout the year. In 2020, more than 1,000 Missourians across the state volunteered with our organization
