Return Reference	Explanation
Part2SectionBLine1g	The Organization provides services to many city departments including elected officials. Elected officials often organize community clean-ups and other events that benefit the community. The Organization meets with elected officials to educate them on the Organization's mission to equip volunteers and to make the officials aware of the services the elected officials can utilize and share with their constituents. In 2020 the Organization paid two firms $18,750 to assist with these efforts.
