Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b: Form 990 Review Process	Three staff worked closely with our bookkeeper and accountant to ensure that we have all necessary financial information to prepare the 990. After preparing a draft of the 990, the staff members worked together to review our responses against the instructions, and cross-check all of the numbers we input. The draft was provided to the Board of Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c: Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	We keep track of all organizations and businesses in which directors, officers, and staff members have an interest. When directors, officers, or staff are contemplating a transaction with an interested person, or with an entity that they are members or owners of, we carefully follow the procedures in our conflict of interest policy, which includes deliberating about the matter, exploring alternatives, and voting on the matter without the interested party present. Conflicts of interest are generally identified and reviewed by the Board, however, an independent team of staff members also reviews conflicts of interest that arise at the staff level.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a: Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	Staff salaries are determined using an equitable salary pay calculator that starts with a base salary set in reference to the MIT Living Wage Index in their geographic region. They are then adjusted higher if a staff member has additional dependents, whether other adults or children, to take care of. All staff are involved in salary discussions, and any changes in the salary must first be approved by adults or children, to take care of. All staff are involved in salary discussions, and any changes in the salary must first be approved by basis of the current living wage calculations before approving any change. All staff currently make salaries that are far below market rates for similarly situated nonprofit employees.
