Part I, Line 2:	Before any grant is approved, the Foundation performs a review of the specific grant request and conducts an assessment on the needs and purpose/mission of the requesting entity. Some grants awardees are required to submit a follow-up report.
Part II, line 1, Column (h):	Chapter Community Outreach Grants - The Foundation provides funding to support community service or outreach projects that involve FBA chapter participation. Projects must address the need for legal services in the community or fall under any component of the Foundation's mission. Diversity Grant - This grant program, established in 2017, supports educational, community service, or outreach projects or programs with a diversity focus. FBA Chapters, Sections, Divisions and Members are encouraged to participate. This grant was designed to address an ongoing need within local communities. Ilene and Michael Shaw Public Service Award- This award is designed to assist and encourage FBA chapters in providing service to their communities. The Foundation provides $5,000 in needed funds to continue worthwhile efforts and/or provides seed money to plan and implement public service programs. Ilene and Michael Shaw Younger Lawyer Public Service Grant - This $5,000 grant enables FBA chapters to provide service to the public through the development and implementation of public service projects and pro-bono law-related services. In order to encourage an increased and continued commitment to public service responsibility by young lawyers, these projects must be administered under the auspices of a chapter Younger Lawyers Committee. Minnesota Chapter Donor Advised Fund Grants - This donor advised fund was established by the FBA's Minnesota Chapter. While distributions from the fund are made at the Foundation's discretion, the Minnesota Chapter may submit advice or recommendations with respect to distributing monies from the fund to programs in its state. Centennial Fund- The Federal Bar Association turned 100 on January 5, 2020. In honor of this incredible milestone the Foundation awarded a grant to the Association Centennial Celebration educational activities and publication of the Centennial Book.
