Explanation: We filed our 2020 990 on paper after requesting - and receiving - an extension of the filing period until Nov. 15, 2021. We did receive the notice that after the 2020 filings, all filings are required to be electronic, but that notice did not address the extension. We only learned of the July 1 date for electronic filing when our 2020 filing was returned, after it was filed in accordance with our extension. As a low budget nonprofit that can not afford professional assistance with our IRS filings, we believed that we were in compliance and request that this fine be waived.
