	CCST is an independent, non-partisan, nonprofit organization that makes California's policies stronger with science and technology (S&T). Established as an independent science advising body at the request of the State Legislature in 1988, our mission is to engage leading experts in science and technology to advise State policymakers TO ENSURE that California policy is strengthened and informed by scientific knowledge, research, and innovation. CCST'S vision for the Golden State is that California enhances its global leadership in science, technology, and innovation TO GUIDE our state, our Nation, and our world towards a healthy economy, society, and environment. For the past three decades, CCST'S approach to partnering and facilitating dialogue across institutions and disciplines has allowed us to create a collective impact that exceeds what any single institution could accomplish on its own. For the past decade, CCST has also worked with government and philanthropic partners to prepare scientists and engineers for public service through our S&T Policy Fellowship program. In 2020, CCST launched a five-year public-private partnership to mobilize S&T expertise across California's extraordinary research and innovation enterprise to deliver science-driven recommendations for increasing resilience to complex and intersecting disasters. As California's future unfolds, CCST will play a leading role in harnessing science and technology to shape policies that address the disproportionate impact of natural and man-made disasters and other threats to diverse communities throughout our State. Through our efforts to inform system-wide change with science, CCST is helping deliver a more resilient and equitable future for all Californians.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4: Intended uses of the endowment fund.	CCST has one donor restricted endowment for the fellows program. From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) requires CCST to maintain as a fund of perpetual duration (underwater endowment). At December 31, 2020 and 2019, CCST did not have any endowments that were considered to be underwater.
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities at December 31, 2020.
