4a (Code: ) (Expenses $ 1,472,136 including grants of $ ) (Revenue $ 103,504 )

Background Today, through our network and initiatives, LiveOn NY serves all the older New Yorkers from every community and socioeconomic background across New York State. Our members include over 100 nonprofit organizations which run over 1,000 community-based programs, including senior centers, meals-on-wheels, elder abuse support, affordable senior housing, caregiving services, intergenerational programs, creative aging, long term care services, and case management. Together with our members, we reach roughly 500,000 older adults annually. 2021 Accomplishments In 2021, amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, LiveOn NY mobilized and coordinated resources, in concert with its growing network of LiveOn member agencies and other partners, to (a) ensure that older New Yorkers had access to quality community services (including COVID vaccinations and food), (b) provide training & technical assistance to enhance care provided by nonprofit professionals (including guidance as older adult centers began to resume grab-and-go meals and other in-person services), and (c) advocate for more age-friendly policies and increased investment in related services. Advocacy Through our city & state policy/advocacy work, we continued to represent the aging services sector on city and state issues. We focused on a New York City budget that prioritizes the needs of older adults and the network of community-based agencies that serve them, funding elder hunger relief, technology infrastructure to combat social isolation, personal protective equipment (PPE) and other supplies for direct service workers, and indirect cost rates. We expanded our advocacy efforts at the state level, supporting 5 pieces of legislation that were signed into law, and, during a difficult budget year, ensured that more than $23 million in funding for waiting lists for senior services would continue to be available in the budget. We also secured a commitment from the New York City Council to increase funding rates for home-delivered meals, a $9.4 million investment that will ultimately go into effect in FY23. During this time, we also hosted two education sessions focused on the 2021 local elections, including one on Ranked Choice Voting, a new method of voting utilized in New York City. Beyond this, we co-hosted a non-partisan Mayoral Forum on Aging and a Comptroller Forum, in addition to a City Council Questionnaire open to all candidates, to further educate voters in advance of this election. Finally, following more than a year of closure due to the pandemic, LiveOn NY advocated to ensure that New York City Older Adult Centers could reopen to serve older adults in need with appropriate safety guidance in June of 2021. Education During the past year, our education & training programs focused on providing professional development opportunities and the necessary technical support for the professionals within our growing network of providers during the pandemic. More specifically, we focused on the whole aging network, particularly our member agencies, while also significantly broadening our connections by creating five new working groups. Because many of these agencies were overburdened with COVID-fueled responsibilities and left bewildered by developments at multiple levels of government and other fronts, LiveOn has worked intensively to support and empower them and the entire field as New York continues to recover from the pandemic and reopen. During the pandemic, we offered educational opportunities to more than 520 professionals a record at our 31st Annual Conference on Aging (which we held using virtual methods for the first time) and were especially intentional on engagement; we asked presenters to be intentional in using reflective questions, polls, case studies and/or breakout sessions, and strongly emphasized that sessions would be opportunities for attendees to learn practical tips. In addition, we offered a new training series called "Senior Center Training Program" that was supported through private funding and was designed to empower New York City senior centers to meet critical emerging needs and best practices and consider innovative approaches to programming, particularly as nonprofits responded to the New York City Department of Agings (DFTAs) Older Adult Centers Request for Proposals (RFP). With each session led by a diverse lineup of experts, this series provided 12 training sessions for 1,612 participants, which represents 2,418 training hours in total to 691 total unique professionals. Benefits Outreach In 2021, our Benefit Outreach Program provided benefits outreach for SNAP, Medicaid, the Medicare Savings Program, SCRIE and property tax exemptions to 759,435 older New Yorkers, 15 times more than our original goal. Such efforts included sending 245,154 materials (i.e. hard copy flyers and emails containing digital flyers) to older adults, more than 37 times our original materials distribution goal. In addition, we provided screening assistance for eligibility to 2709 older adults for all of these benefits in 2021. Helping a total of 1,593 older New Yorkers seek SNAP benefits, including assisting 1,211 older adults file new applications, 255 with reauthorizations, and filing change forms for 127 clients. These accomplishments are particularly noteworthy, given the ongoing COVID pandemic, which has caused LiveOn NY's headquarters to remain closed to the public all of the past year, with the entire Benefits Outreach team continuing to operate remotely and exceed their outreach goals. Reframing Aging NYC Lastly, LiveOn launched a new Reframing Aging in New York City initiative through the support of private funding and in collaboration with the Gerontological Society of America (GSA) and other partners. The overarching goal of this initiative is to catalyze a fundamental shift in the way that policymakers, stakeholders, and the public perceive and talk about aging, reduce ageism, and cultivate greater support among all these audiences for policies and funding to help all of us age in place and thrive. This included recruiting and training an initial cohort of 30 Reframing Aging NYC Facilitators, and initiating outreach through online and offline media using Reframed language. Through all of these programmatic efforts, LiveOn NY along with its members and partners are enabling older adults to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, age independently within their communities, and thrive in later life.
