Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds	The Trust's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States include checking every proposed grantee to ensure that it is a recognized charitable organization. Each grantee must meet charitable standards for programmatic, governance and financial soundness. For grants issued in response to a proposal, The Trust issues a grant letter requiring that the grantee use the grant funds in accordance with the budget included in its proposal and that any funds not used for the approved purpose will revert back to The Trust. The grantee is required to issue a formal report to The Trust providing an accounting of the use of the funds and a narrative describing the outcome of the project. Failure to provide this report will preclude future grants. For those grants originating from donor advised funds, the grantee is instructed in writing that no one associated with the fund may receive any benefit as a result of the grant and by accepting the check the organization will comply with these instructions. There were no non-cash grants to governments or organizations in the United States in 2021. Grants to an individual are made pursuant to Advisory Committee recommendation.
