Pt I Line 2	Procedures for providing funding or re-grants to other organizations: In order to be eligible for a grant distributed by Keystone Research Center for voter education IN THIS FISCAL YEAR, grantees had to be a public charity exempt under 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the internal revenue code. Applications were also accepted if from organizations using a qualified fiscal sponsor. Grants were made for the 501(c)(3) charitable purposes only, and the grant funds as well as any interest earned thereon cannot be expended for any other purpose without the prior written approval of the project director and the Executive Director of the Keystone Research Center. By accepting these grants, the grantees agreed to use the grant in accordance with the terms of these policies. Grantees further agreed to return any funds not expended or committed for the purposes of the grant within the period set forth above. Failure to comply with the terms of this grant could result in the termination of the grant or project funding at the sole discretion of Keystone Research Center. Grantees had to represent that they were duly organized under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they were formed, and is in substantial compliance with all material laws and regulations that applied to the organization. The following had to be provided with grantees funding request: a copy of the articles of incorporation, board of directors; an IRS letter, a w9 and a 990 if one was available. Grantee could not use any portion of the grant funds to carry on propaganda, or otherwise attempt to influence legislation, except to the extent permitted by IRC sections 501(h) and 4911, or if applicable, section 501(c)(4). Grantee could not use any portion of the grant funds to carry on lobbying without express written consent; our standard letter advised grantees that lobbying was not and approved use of funds. Any such use would require the express written consent of Keystone Research Center, in order for KRC to account for any lobbying dollars that would count toward its own lobbying cap. Grantee could not engage in any activity that jeopardizes Keystone Research Centers status as a non-profit tax-exempt organization under IRC Section 501(c)(3). Grantee were required to provide activity updates during the grant period to the Project Director, including verbal progress reports and/or providing updates on activities.
