Other	Pt. I, lines 12-16 - The organization shares staff, facilities, and some overhead expenses with another tax-exempt organization. Most of the expenses are paid by this organization and are reimbursed by the other for its share of expenses based on time spent on projects or other reasonable method. This organization paid and reported the total of salary/wages of the shared staff under its Federal ID number. The expense total listed on line 12 is only the organization's remaining portion of the shared expenses.
Other	Pt. IV, col. C and D - The amounts of compensation represent the total paid to the executive director. As noted above, these expenses were shared with another organization. Only this organization's portion of expenses were reported in Pt. I, line 12.
Other	Part III - Stmt. of Program Accomplishments: Over the past 10 years, NARAL Pro-Choice Missouri (NARAL MO) has advocated about matters regarding contraceptive access, rape survivors' access to emergency contraception in emergency rooms, access to Title X family planning services, the efficacy of crisis pregnancy centers and the materials they choose to use, the landscape of sex education in Missouri, and a host of other topics related to reproductive rights. In 2019 the organization grew to be a truly statewide entity. NARAL MO hosted more than 30 events in this fiscal year across more than 20 localities around the state. NARAL MO has a thriving field team and internship program who in this fiscal year talked to 4,265 Missourians about the importance of Medicaid expansion in ensuring access to health care for all Missourians. Drawing from diverse college campuses, NARAL MO had three summer interns and four spring interns who worked on communications and grassroots organizing. They were interested in politics, marketing, graphic design, social media, web design, communications, and grassroots activism. Working with staff, they managed a very impressive social network presence and educated Missourians about reproductive health and potential political threats. Staff, interns, and thousands of supporters organized against dozens of threats to women's reproductive rights and health in the 2019 and 2020 legislative sessions in Missouri. The organization helped to organize media campaigns and wrote op-ed pieces and editorials in support of every individual's right to decide if, when, how, and with whom to start or grow their family. The organization also provided briefing papers to lawmakers, community leaders, and the public. The organization is committed to being an anti-racist organization supporting and lifting up the voices of all those most disproportionately impacted by the dangerous abortion ban that passed in 2019. With some 20 organizational allies, all working for the health and safety of Missouri women and families, we sought to protect individual rights and the rights of families, worked with faith-community allies, and organized against threats posed by the legislature, policymakers, and in the community generally.
