What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
 Athena Project celebrates and nurtures women's artistic expression, working actively for equality of opportunity, recognition and pay based on artistic merit alone.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Girls Create is a mentoring program for playwriting, fashion design and comedy through which 6th to 10th grade girls learn aspects of these art forms in a unique way--we bring in professionals to teach, guest artists to share their expertise and mentors from the community to guide and encourage the girls in their own creativity. Each week-long program culminates in a final project, which we invite the community, including the girls' friends and family, to celebrate at a Friday Presentation.

29 ArtBURSTS, an evolution of #ArtFindsUs (artfindsus.org) was born and executed over the spring/summer of 2020 to fill the pandemic arts void by paying and uplifting women. Athena Project curated a mobile art project using roving billboard trucks displaying visual artwork, musicians performing in pedicabs, and a mobile stage to showcase dancers, comedians, and spoken word artists at 3-4 stops along the way. We prioritized visiting underserved communities, providing access to the arts in spaces not traditionally reached, while committing to thoughtfully creating an inclusive environment through relationship building and intentional outreach to create a better experience for all involved.

30 In our Plays In Progress PIP Series, women playwrights collaborate with directors, dramaturgs and actors, to bring brand new work to the public as workshop performances, staged readings or table readings--and then the audience talks back. Because viewers' and actors' reactions are so vital to help develop stories further, we invite the public to take part in a discussion after each performance.
