Line 16

These are expenses directly related to running our two main programs: rescued animal care and educational and enrichment programs for the public. Animal care for 2021 was unusually high compared to prior years because of higher than usual veterinary bills, as some of the animals are aging. Total animal care expenses were 94,470, including all food, bedding, veterinary care, enrichment, and supplies directly related to animal care. Public programs expenses were 27,669.
