It consist of 64 homes, each with about 12 children per home and two Zambian house mothers. It is a transitional full-time care living facility for children who have faced extreme circumstances. Children admitted into the Tree of Life may suffer from significant medical conditions and their guardians are unable to provide necessary care or their home situation is unsuitable for the child to live. This can be for new buildings or major renovations of existing buildings. This is primarily for schools but can include homes and buildings in the Tree of Life Village. Family Legacy's Excel Beyond program was created to give high school graduates the opportunity to maximize their educational and career potential beyond high school. The Foundation Year is a gap-year program for recent high school graduates to prepare them for life in the professional world. Through workshops and seminars, students learn important professional skills such as interviewing, budgeting, resume-writing, and time-management. They participate in an introductory trades program as well as a three-month paid internship and entrepreneurial training. Based on their 12th-grade exam scores, these students will go on to enroll in either a university or trades program, or they will enter the job market- well-equipped with the skills they have learned in the program. Students can qualify for either a one-year or a multi-year trade program, depending on their exam scores. Family Legacy partners directly with certified trade schools around Lusaka to accommodate our students' wide-ranging interests. Students who have worked diligently in our program and have high enough 12th-grade exam scores have the opportunity to attend the best universities in Zambia and Zimbabwe. We currently have over 153 students enrolled in university.
