Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 2	Our children and sports program had grown tremendously since last year. The participation has increased resulting in a positive impact with the communities and a demand to expand in various areas throughout San Diego. Also, it inspire us to provide an outlet for adults males and females as a stress reliever due to Covid creating a high percentage of people being depressed. That program is expanding at large as well.
Form 990, Part III, Line 3	Unfortunately, due to lack of funding and ability to use other means because of Covid, CFCHO had to refrain from conducting Medical Billing workshop which was a major demand for individuals who could not afford to pay a tuition at an institution that we had taught for free. In addition, CFCHO had lost a medical billing contract due to the hardship on physicians' not being able to maintain revenue to offset their operational cost.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7b	For the growth of the organization, it is important to receive added-input from other teams members to ensure governance of fairness remain in control. Therefore, whenever one engage in developing a project, or venture into a project, there are checks and balance points amongst the members.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	This is the first year our organization had to complete a 990, which has been done online by a third party, therefore, it was not circulated amongst the team members. And since Covid-19 had a tremendous impact on our activities in Illinois, for the most part, activities in San Diego, CA, our affiliated partner, children sport program, generated most of the revenue which is straight forward. It's a matter of ensuring their remain in compliance with operations. While activities in Illinois engaged in a health care education program that consist of month of preparation, grant given my Pfizer. So there was no need to involved members with the concerns of Form 990.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Did the organization regularly and consistently monitor and enforce compliance with the policy? Yes we do. Whenever the organization engages in any programs from Healthcare education, Children and Adults sports program or Business Services, we ensure compliance is enforce via securing appropriate professional insurance policies, communication via email, phone or in writing (publicly and/or amongst the team members). It also ensures accountability.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Every persons within the organizations present a different level of skills and expertise that weight in on how compensation would be allocated to independent contractors or member engaged in a project, if they member decides to accept a salary. For example, the CEO with high-level experience in the health care market has the ability to secure billing contract, train medical billers and or outsource her skills on behalf of the company. She is more familiar with the market to decide comparable salary. If she chooses not to be compensated for her services by the company, that is her option. For independent contractors engaged in our projects, the CEO, Directors and Senior Administration gives involve in that decision making process.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	We are very opened to display our financial statements for public view because it reflects the sacrifice members made for not seeking salaries, only to pour back into the organization with the hopes of expanding it to the next level. And within a year, thus far our California team members have been successful. Unfortunately, due to different laws in different states; and funds made available to some companies and not ours like others in the state of Illinois, caused a hindrance in projecting our training online program.
Form 990, Part IX, Line 24e	CEO worked as the capacity of a consultant for the organization to conduct medical billing and didn't receive a salary, while engaging in other independent contact work on a non-organizational matter to maintain her livelihood. Organization invested $10,000 with Pacific Region Trading Company, EIN 83-1626690 to increase organization revenue since other streams of revenue was not feasible in the state of Illinois to engage in domestic and international programs; and the $4,500 relates to refund in the children sports program in San Diego, CA
