We rely on the kind gifts of friends and partners in our community including many medical and rehab professionals who contact us on a daily basis to assist their elderly and low income patients. Every dollar contributed goes directly to support our program services.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 1,167,758 including grants of $ 1,066,672) (Revenue $ 0)

The organization acquired over 165,790 pounds of used medical equipment and medical supplies valued at $1,264,973 which was carefully cleaned and refurbished for redistribution. During the year, the organization distributed 20,235 pieces of used medical equipment and supplies valued at $1,063,485. These items were distributed free-of-charge to 3,965 uninsured or under-insured disabled adults and children coming from 50 different cities and counties within the Commonwealth of Virginia and beyond. The Pediatric portion of our program involves close collaboration with University of Virginia (UVA) healthcare professionals, including two volunteer program coordinators who are pediatric therapists at UVA Children's Hospital. The organization also works in partnership with UVA's "Blue Ridge Care Connection for Children" program to help needy families access medical services targeted to their child's unique healthcare needs. Blessed with an extensive inventory, we can provide families with pediatric equipment and adaptive items individualized for children based on their sizes and disabilities. The equipment resources we provide help children and their families lead safer, healthier, and happier lives.

The organization has developed a digital Disability Resource Guide which brings together a comprehensive network of resources committed to providing the tools, services, and support needed to improve the quality of life of every adult, senior, or child living with a disability in our community. With 15 different categories and over 400 links to vendors and agencies, the guide consolidates invaluable resources covering all forms of disability including physical, intellectual, developmental, sensory, and/or mental challenges. Our vision is to provide individuals, caregivers, and healthcare professionals with an easy way to connect to our area's many wonderful resources. In addition, the resource guide generates revenue that helps to support our mission through corporate sponsorships. Collectively, our sponsors paid $15,000 total for the privilege of adding their name and logo to the site. Sponsorship is not a requirement to be listed on the site. The resource guide was developed and is maintained by volunteers. The Disability Resource Guide is located at http://www.disabilityresourcesunited.org
