What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
 Build a healthy youth community using a holistic mind and body approach and to create a safe space to empower LGBT+ youth to grow as individuals and within their community.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 TransYou: 30 youth served. This weekly gathering invites transgender and gender expansive youth (ages 11-20) into a safe space. Facilitated with a focus on mental health, these conversations are wide-ranging and often address issues facing youth in their daily lives. Attending youth have the opportunity to meet and build connections with other young folks with similar experiences; feedback from attendees often reflects the necessity of understanding that gender nonconforming youth are not alone, and are valid and precious exactly as they are. During the COVID-19 pandemic, this programming has been offered digitally. TransYou is offered in partnership with the LGBT Community Center of Greater Cleveland. TransYou has also expanded to offer monthly play groups for gender nonconforming youth ages 3-12. TransYou playgroups offer kids the opportunity to play, engage, cooperate, and create in a safe and affirming space with other kids who share their experiences. During playgroups, parents and family members can gather in a separate space to share support and information

Dungeons and Dragons: 8 youth served. Because play is a primary way that youth connect, collaborate, engage, and learn, we offer a Dungeons & Dragons night for LGBTQ+ youth ages 11-19 every week and a half, alternating Saturdays and Tuesdays. This play experience leverages fictional characters to help youth try on various qualities and choices that they might not feel comfortable experimenting with in daily life. This activity builds strong social support, builds self-confidence, allows youth to explore their identity safely, and allows participants to express their creativity, problem-solving, and decision-making in real time. Connections Drop-In: 15 youth served. Connections is our foundational program, built to honor the pressing need for peer support among LGBTQ+ youth. Connections is a drop-in program, hosted on weekday afternoons as an open space so that youth can attend after school and while maintaining other school and social activities. This program focuses on emotional, social, and mental wellness skills; we offer judgment-free skill building, personal connection and coaching, self-care practices, and the opportunity to develop peer relationships in a safe and validating environment.
