Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	Income TaxesFinancial statement presentation follows the recommendations of ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC 740, Openhouse is required to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by Openhouse and requires a two-step process that separates recognition from measurement. The first step is determining whether a tax position has met the recognition threshold; the second step is measuring a tax position that meets the recognition threshold Management believes that Openhouse has adequately evaluated its current tax positions and has concluded that as of June 30, 2021, Openhouse does not have any uncertain tax positions for which a reserve or an accrual for a tax liability would be necessary.Openhouse has received notification from the Internal Revenue Service and the State of California that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. The exemptions are subject to periodic review by the federal and state taxing authorities and management is confident that Openhouse continues to satisfy all federal and state statutes in order to qualify for continued tax exemption status. Openhouse may periodically receive unrelated business income (such as sublease rental income or advertising revenue) requiring Openhouse to file separate tax returns under federal and state statutes. Under such conditions, Openhouse calculates and accrues the applicable taxes.

We could not do our work without the support of this devoted army of volunteers who make friendly telephone calls and deliver groceries, other essential items, and gifts. We also explored other ways to create safe opportunities to decrease social isolation. We celebrated Transgender Pride with hot brunch delivery to 41 trans seniors. We also made front page news with our drag show for residents who watched from their apartment windows. We literally stopped traffic on Laguna Street as people slowed and pulled over to watch the balcony performers.
