Indeed, the Trust's stewardship of its endowment funds, so that they continue to support the community in perpetuity, is one of the Trust's most important functions.
Part X, Line 2	The Trust had no uncertain tax positions and as prescribed by FASB ASC 740, a footnote was not required in the audited financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds	The Trust's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States include checking every proposed grantee to confirm that it is a recognized charitable organization. Each grantee must meet charitable standards for programmatic, governance and financial soundness. For grants made in response to an organization's grant proposal, The Trust issues a grant letter requiring that the grantee use the grant funds in accordance with the budget included in its proposal and that any funds not used for the approved purpose are required to be repaid to The Trust. The grantee is required to issue a formal report to The Trust providing an accounting of the use of the funds and a narrative describing the outcome of the project. Failure to provide this report may preclude future grants. For those grants originating from donor advised funds, the grantee is instructed in writing that no one associated with the fund may receive any benefit as a result of the grant and by accepting the check the organization will comply with these instructions. There were no non-cash grants to governments or organizations in the United States in 2022. Grants to an individual are made pursuant to Advisory Committee recommendation.

While many of the Trust's assets are subject to donor-imposed purpose and/or endowment restrictions, as a community foundation The Trust's governing documents provide for the exercise of "variance power," which is the Board's power to lift one or more restrictions in a gift instrument where changed circumstance have rendered literal compliance with the restriction unnecessary, undesirable, impractical, or impossible. Accounting standards further provide that if the governing body of an organization has the ability to remove a donor restriction, the contributions should be classified as net assets without donor restrictions. Accordingly, Part X, Line 27 classifies net assets of the Trust as net assets without donor restrictions, consistent with the audited financial statements.
