What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
To promote community resilience through health, sustainability, culture, and equality.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Joy of Movement Joy of Movement continues to offer classes and events to enhance personal well-being and meaningful connections in the community through movement, music, and meditation. 2021 was a difficult year due to the pandemic, and JOM did its best to adapt. We set up wifi in the studio so that some teachers could continue to offer their classes online. The studio reopened to the public, taking appropriate precautions.

29 PepperfestThe 2021 PepperFest bounced back after scaling down in 2020 due to the pandemic. We moved the booths to Lorax Lane to hold the 14th Annual celebration of local food, sustainable farms and farmers, as well as the local businesses and community. Many folks attended, and they enjoyed the booths of food, nonprofits, and beverages. The agenda was packed with entertainment and activities for kids as well.

Tall Grass Food BoxTall Grass Food Box is a platform to support and encourage the sustainability of Black farmers, by increasing their visibility and securing space for them in the local marketplace. In a time where small businesses have become even more vulnerable, it is important that we double down in our support of Black farmers. In this vein, we seek to build a capacity for self-determination within our local food systems. Every other week we pull together fresh produce from Black Farmers across NC and put it together in a box to pick up. Each box has enough to feed 1-2 people or an individual who cooks more 3 or more times a week.
