Other	Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments In 2022, Emgage continued with the momentum we picked up during the 2020 presidential election cycle, and our associated Million Muslim Votes campaign, by holding our Million Muslim Votes reception, at which we introduced Million Muslim Votes 2.0. This campaign sought to once again galvanize an unprecedented number of Muslim American voters during the 2022 midterm elections. Throughout the year, we continued to connect with our Muslim American community, bringing coalitions, partners, leaders, and community members together to form deep and lasting relationships. Of particular note, we coordinated a first-of-its-kind meeting of Muslim business leaders at the White House to discuss how to support minority-led businesses. We also launched our Muslim Civic Table convening program for Muslim communities, nonprofits, advocates, and political leaders; three Tables were launched by the end of 2022. We also led the way in representing the Muslim American community at prominent public events, including the White House United We Stand Summit, which confronts hate-driven violence; at Netroots Nation, where we discussed democracy and human rights; and the 59th Annual ISNA Convention, where we spoke about how our community can gain political power. Our state chapters continued their hard work bringing community members in touch with elected officials, performing our one-of-a-kind Get Out The Vote campaigns, providing voter resources for local citizens, training young leaders, and empowering our community through uplifting our voices.
