What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
This organization was formed to work with the city of San Jose and the citizenry of the Northside neighborhood in the redevelopment of north central San Jose to benefit all the residents in the area. It specifically strives to help develop and improve economic and housing opportunities for the many low income residents in the area while preserving the economic, ethnic and social diversity of the neighborhood, in addition to providing economic opportunities and the best quality of life for all residents.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Animal Rescue program was operated to accept contributions for capturing, spaying, and neutering neighborhood animals, primarily the cat population and to provide needed veterinary services. Community education and outreach programs are implemented to reduce the wild population, spread of disease, unwanted litters, etc. Maintenance and care are provided to feral colonies. Whenever possible, animals are socialized and adopted out.

Form 990- EZ, Header, Line A	Extension Form 8868 was submitted but was rejected due to our exempt status being found to be suspended. That rejection is how we became aware of our suspended status, which was due to some past year documents that Office of Attorney General Registry of Charitable Trust considered missing. Example - our 2016 Form 990-EZ was filed with them as required but apparently without Schedule B attached. This deficiency was corrected on Dec 20, 2022 with resubmittal of our entire 990-EZ including Schedule B. We have faced a difficult transition as our longtime volunteer book keeper has suffered family member losses and a major job change which has impacted our ability to keep up with our filings and respond in a timely and effective manner. We have reapportioned their workload entirely to two other volunteers (officers) and established a central Google docs location for our paperwork and accounting going forward. We have also identified backup volunteers in key positions. This should help us avoid getting into difficulties like this late filing in the future.
Form 990- EZ, Part I, Line 16	Form 990-EZ, Part I, Line 16 - Misc. supplies for maintaining feral colonies, set-up for foster homes; organizations insurance; public park maintenance material and plantings; online transaction fees.
Form 990- EZ, Part I, Line 20	Form 990-EZ, Part I, Line 20 - Unrealized loss in investments.
Form 990- EZ, Part III, Line (28-31)	Primary Exempt purpose - The 13th Street Neighborhood Advisory Committee (NAC) was formed to work with the city of San Jose and the citizenry of the Northside neighborhood in the redevelopment of north central San Jose to benefit all residents in the area. It specifically strives to help develop and improve economic and housing opportunities for the many low income residents in the area while preserving the economic, ethnic and social diversity of the neighborhood, in addition to providing economic opportunities and the best quality of life for all residents.

Explanation: Our organization requested an extension to file (as we normally do to facilitate our document preps for filing) but it was rejected. That rejection was due to our suspended exempt status with the Office of Attorney General Registry of Charitable Trust, a condition that only came to our attention due to the rejected extension to file request. It is unclear if any suspension notice was sent to us but regardless we were unaware for some time. Our organization operates with a very thin volunteer staff (as it has for many years). Our longtime bookkeeper is the backbone of the organization, handling not just the books but also many administrative functions (annual and biannual filings, website registration, etc), but was hit with several personal and family difficulties (deaths in the family, a new full-time job). These difficulties rightly consumed her attention while compounding her workload, but our organization failed to act quickly or effectively to offload her duties and spread them to others (namely the President and Treasurer). That offload has now occurred and this tax filing is our first without her extensive involvement. We have transferred our physical records to corporate officers facilitate this. We have also implemented important changes to ensure that her previous duties have been officially transferred to other volunteers and that backup individuals have been identified to ensure they are carried out on-time. We have centralized our documents and controls electronically in Google Docs so that all officers have ready access. This was formerly all on paper held by our bookkeeper which served to hamper officer involvement. In summary, we are recovering from the effective loss of a key volunteer (to whom we are grateful and wish every success in the future) and putting in place a system that should be effective in keeping us compliant with our charitable corporations responsibilities in the future.
