During FY2022, the American Conservative Union (ACUF) engaged in numerous events and programs to educate Americans about conservative solutions to some of the countrys post vexing problems. In particular, ACUFs Nolan Center for Justice has produced dozens of written works as well as video and social media pieces in furtherance of its mission to improve our criminal justice system. Similarly, the ACUF Center for Legislative Accountability has developed a unique methodology for evaluating the records of elected officials and producing written documents to inform voters about their political representatives. This project covers 99 state legislative bodies as well as the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate. More broadly, ACUF engages the public through conferences and policy discussions, research and writing to highlight an approach conservative solutions beyond criminal justice and legislative accountability.
