Facts And Circumstances Test
Sources of Support: More than 10% of the organization's support comes from government units and/or the general public. The organization is developing additional support from the public through annual giving campaigns and government contacts and grants. This is a long-term strategic goal of the organization, in which the organization is investing leadership and staff time. KCMS Foundation programs have served the Kansas City metro area since 2006, helping a broad population of uninsured and underserved people access healthcare. Twenty-seven safety-net clinics, then hospitals/health systems, and over nine hundred physicians support the agency's mission through collaboration for care and donation of healthcare services. Representative Governing Body: KCMS Foundation maintains a representative governing board that represent the broad interest of the public. Several criteria are used to ensure that public interest is represented. Board members are selected to represent communities across the metro to provide special knowledge and expertise in the area of safety-net healthcare, health access and equity, and to represent the population served and the broader community. Availability of Public Facilities or Service and Public Participation: KCMS Foundation provides access to over $8,000,000 annually in donated, free, healthcare to people who are uninsured and medically underserved in a five-county area. In addition, the organization's volunteers provide access annually to over $10,000 in free community health education services. Over 900 physicians with specialized knowledge and expertise participate in donation of healthcare and health education programming annually through our WyJo, Metro Care, Retired Physician Organization, and Wellness and Prevention programs, which serve to accomplish the charitable work of the organization. The organization is held accountable for grants provided through philanthropic sources. These grants, whether from public or private sources, are made to support charitable programs that support a broad section of the population; those who are uninsured and medically underserved. Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is generally exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements. The Foundation recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. The Foundation is subject to income tax regulations in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and certain state jurisdictions. Tax regulations within each jurisdiction are subject to the interpretation of the related tax laws and regulations and require significant judgment to apply. With few exceptions, the Foundation is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the applicable tax authorities for the years before 2019. If any were to be incurred, the Foundation's policy is to record penalties and interest assessed by income tax authorities as operating expenses.
