Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The mission of California Communications Access Foundation (CCAF) is to serve as an educator, convener and resource that works collaboratively to ensure communications and information access in service of individuals who are Deaf or disabled.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 13,711,862 including grants of $ 9,903) (Revenue $)

The California Communications Access Foundation (CCAF) manages and operates the Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program (DDTP) for the California Public Utilities Commission. The DDTP provides free specialized telecommunications equipment to anyone Deaf or disabled in California who is unable to use a standard telephone. CCAF provides a wide range of services aimed at helping these historically underserved populations, including home installations of equipment, support from service and call centers, distribution events, and the California Relay Service. In this fiscal year, CCAF provided support and equipment to more than 730,000 Deaf or disabled Californians.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,660,686 including grants of $ 1,198,525) (Revenue $)

The California Communications Access Foundation has also established a philanthropic wing, called Ability Central, to further its mission of expanding communication and information access for people with disabilities. Ability Central is accomplishing this goal by offering grants and technical support to other disability nonprofits, as well as providing online information and resources for the Deaf and disabled community and people with questions about disabilities and communication access. In this fiscal year, Ability Central awarded $918,790 to 16 nonprofit organizations and other causes in support of people who are Deaf or disabled.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4:	On November 13, 2014, the Board of Directors approved the creation of a board-designated endowment fund for the purpose of making grants, providing consultants and educational opportunities to grantees, and conducting meetings and events, all in furtherance of CCAF's exempt mission.
Part X, Line 2:	Accounting standards require an organization to evaluate its tax positions and provide for a liability for any positions that would not be considered "more likely than not" to be upheld under a tax authority examination. Management has evaluated its tax positions and has concluded that a provision for a tax liability is not necessary at June 30, 2022. Generally, CCAF's information returns remain open for examination for a period of three (federal) or four (state of California) years from the date of filing.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	Per the grant requirements, grantees usually submit a mid-term project report and a final report. The funded organizations provide reports and examples documenting the extent to which they achieve their goals. Additionally, CCAF maintains contact with the grantees throughout the funding period through regular emails, phone calls, and, on occasion, on-site visits to the grantees and their projects.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The outside accountant prepares Form 990 and provides a draft to the Director of Finance & Accounting and to the CEO for review. A complete copy of the 990 is provided to the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors before filing. In addition, a copy of the audited financial statements is provided to the Board of Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	CCAF has a written conflict of interest policy which applies to all members of the Board of Directors and all management team employees. Such individuals sign and certify an annual statement disclosing whether they have any potential or actual conflicts of interest with respect to the organization's operations. During discussions on grant applications, Board members are asked whether they have a conflict of interest with any applicant and, if so, to recuse themselves from the review of the application as well as the vote for approval of the grant application. In addition, CCAF's employee handbook contains a conflict of interest policy which applies to all employees; such policy is supported by the active enforcement of CCAF's whistleblower protection policy, which encourages the reporting of potential illegal and unethical conduct, including conflicts of interest.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	In 2019, CCAF hired an outside consultant to review the current compensation and job descriptions of CCAF's workforce, including four executive positions. The consultant compared CCAF's roles to similar positions in similar California-based organizations to determine a market-based compensation range and to compare the compensation to appropriate benchmarks. Based on the consultant's report, new compensation levels were implemented in 2019 for CCAF's staff, including the four executive managers. CCAF's Board of Directors employs a separate compensation consultant to review the total compensation of the CEO every three years.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Documents are available by request.
Form 990, Part XI, line 9:	return of grant funds 111,462.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c:	The process for oversight of the audit of the financial statements and selection of the independent auditor is unchanged from the prior year.
