We held weekly community organizing meetings on Zoom, and we continued to monitor implementation of COVID protections and vaccine access in prisons and jails, which remain insufficient. On average 20-30 people participated in the weekly community organizing meetings. We successfully advocated for DOCCS to restore processing marriage licenses, restore visits, restore the Family Reunification Program, and reopen the children's play areas. We reinvigorated our campaign to restore the right to vote to incarcerated people. In addition to hiring a Voting Rights Outreach Coordinator, we worked with a broad coalition of organizations called New York for Full Voting Restoration. We also built a website for the coalition and the campaign to further educate the public. We continued our campaign to shut down Attica. Our Legal Support Unit continued to respond to increased requests for support since the beginning of the pandemic, and continued to operate fully virtually. We served over 80 clients in 2022. Our weekly Family Empowerment Circles ("FEC") remained on Zoom, as did our monthly Songa Mbele circle for formerly incarcerated people, and our weekly community organizing meetings and addressed a wide variety of issues our families faced, COVID-related and otherwise. Approximately 15-20 family members participated in the weekly FEC meetings. Directly-impacted family members appeared on a number of radio and television programs, after receiving communications training. Members also wrote Op-Eds calling for a comprehensive plan to respond to COVID in prisons and jails. We increased the number of free healing retreats for directly-impacted people we offered to three. We continued to offer our Youth Empowerment Program to young people ages 16-24 and the number of participants increased. To date, we served over 400 young people.
