Public Policy and Dialogue: Providing educational events which further awareness of public policy issues. The Center holds forums to present timely discussions on national and international issues of concern to policy makers and members, or to build upon policy discussions from the most recent Capital to Capital exchange, in London, England. Discussions are held in Washington, DC and bring together experts to address the group and include an exchange of ideas. In 2023, we held 48 in person events with vigorous discussion and participation by the attendees. We organized policy tours at Mount Rushmore and surrounding national parks. The Center also hosts the Capital to Capital Exchange which brings together US Congressional leaders, member of the diplomatic community, corporate policy experts, scholars, parliamentarians, government leaders, and business leaders from a host country where the conference is held to discuss pressing international issues. By discussing issues such as international trade, energy, transportation, health, security, etc., policy makers gain a greater understanding of the global challenges facing the US and other countries. August 7-11, 2023, Capital to Capital Exchange was held in London, England.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a: Relevant information in regards to selections on 1a.	The organization pays dues for the President/CEO's membership in a 501(c)(7) social club. The organization utilizes membership in the club for policy and educational events, as well as fundraising and membership development.
Part III, Additional Information	Schedule J Part II: Compensation shown on Schedule J is the gross compensation reported on form W-2 for the year, as required by Form 990 instructions. This compensation varies from the compensation reported on Form 990 Part IX because a portion of the compensation paid in the current year and reported on the Form W-2 was reimbursed by another organization for which some Ripon employees provide services. The Ripon Society acts as common paymaster for both organizations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6	"Members" are organizations that desire to participate in the Society's educational programs. Members do not participate in governing body elections nor do they approve decisions of the governing body.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	Form 990 is made available to members of the governing body for their review.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Members of the governing body attest annually to their compliance with the Society's conflict of interest policy. The Society has not had any potential conflicts of interest arise. If a potential conflict were to arise the Board of Directors would review the facts and circumstances and make a decision as to whether a conflict of interest exists. Any member of the Board involved in the potential conflict would recuse him or herself from the review process.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a	The Organization's Compensation Committee determines the compensation of the President and CEO and other key personnel, after review of pertinent comparative information from published surveys. Their recommendations are brought to the Chairman and Board of Directors for review and approval.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15b	The Organization's Compensation Committee determines the compensation of the President and CEO and other key personnel. Their recommendations are brought to the Chairman for review and approval.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Governing documents, policies and financial reports are made available for review upon request. No such requests have been made.
