Part I, Line 2:	Before making a grant to a grantee in the U.S., Humanity United Action (HUA) performs due diligence, including anti-terrorism checks, organizational diligence as to their tax status, governance and operations, and financial due diligence, complete enough to give reasonable assurance that the grantee will use the grant for the purposes for which it is made. Grantees (U.S. and non-U.S.) are also required to enter into a detailed written grant agreement that governs the use of grant funds and includes financial and narrative reporting requirements. Grantee reporting under the grant agreement is reviewed and approved by program and grants management staff, and these approvals are documented. The grantee's written reporting under the grant agreement is frequently supplemented by meetings, phone conversations and emails between HUA and grantee staff, and may include site visits by HUA staff to grantees when appropriate.
