Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The purpose of the American Battlefield Trust is to inspire appreciation of America, its history, and its promise of liberty through an understanding of the wars fought on its soil, and of the sacrifices of earlier generations of Americans. The American Battlefield Trust tells our extraordinary national story through the conflicts of the first century of the United States. We present this history as accurately and completely as possible, with special emphasis on soldiers engaged on the battlefield. Our vision is that a better understanding of these notable conflicts will inspire all Americans to appreciate more fully their history, on the ground where it actually happened, and why it matters today.

Each quarter, every member receives our 48-page magazine, Hallowed Ground, as a free educational membership benefit. The magazine highlights how their direct support helps preserve endangered Civil War and Revolutionary War battlefields, advances the cause of education about this key period in our Nation's history, and educates them directly on historical elements of importance about the Nation's first 100 years, and land preservation. The Trust depends upon its members and supporters to help fulfill its battlefield preservation and education missions every year through their dues payments, as well as additional charitable gifts. The Trust also has a major donor society, as a subset of its overall membership, called the Color Bearers, comprised of those members who make dues payments of $1,000 or more annually. Total membership in this group was approximately 1,500 members at the end of the fiscal year. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Audit Committee Members, Chair of the ABT Board, President, COO, CFO and Key Employees review the 990 initially. If any corrections need to be made, the auditing firm is notified. After the corrections, the 990 is then distributed to the whole Board of Trustees before the 990 is filed either in paper or electronic form.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is provided in a Trustee Orientation Manual given to new Trustees shortly after they are elected to the Board and they are asked to return a signed acknowledgment of receipt. In addition, Trust staff working with Trustees, landowners, grantors, and other parties involved in a prospective land transaction are required to look for and avoid any conflicts of interest or the appearance of such. That requirement is documented in an internal control procedure, which the Trust's Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) is responsible for administering and has full authority to enforce. The CAO will elevate matters to the Trust President who may also involve the Chair of the Board if needed. Corrective measures may include up to and including termination of employment, office, or board membership.
