 COLOMBIA PROJECT: During 2023, PBI Colombia engaged in constant and frequent dialogue with high-level government agencies (Ministry of Defense, Ministry of the Interior, Deputy Ministers and the High Commissioner for Peace, among others) to convey the security concerns held by Colombian human rights collectives and movements. PBI maintained its high level of engagement with the European Union and the UN Security Council in 2023. PBI has increased the visibility of this resistance process through advocacy actions with the international community, organizing visits and facilitating meetings with Congress representatives (Germany) and members of the diplomatic corps (France). In the regional context of Buenaventura, PBI's integral accompaniment contributed to progress made by several organizations towards the construction of a stable and lasting peace. Despite the ceasefire signed in October 2022 between the armed groups involved in the conflict, the situation in Buenaventura was critical in 2023. A spike in shootings between the gangs was reported in May, along with an upsurge in killings and invisible borders. There was a brief respite in the violence at the end of that month, but it escalated again in June. PBI accompanied CIJP in its initial engagement with the Office of the High Commissioner for Peace regarding local communities and their needs. This action generated space for a State-led process focused on reconciliation, assisting people living in the neighborhoods that the gang conflict has hardest hit in Buenaventura.
