Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The Hunger Project works to create a world without hunger. Its programs currently reach 12.3 million people with sustainable, gender-focused, holistic development strategies that address the root causes of hunger and poverty. In 2023, THP worked with over 9,540 communities throughout Africa, South Asia and Latin America. Its community-led approach recognizes the transformative power of community-owned vision and local leadership, which drives systemic change.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 8,097,313 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 3)

AFRICA - In nine countries in Africa, THP's Epicenter Strategy mobilizes clusters of rural villages into "epicenters," which band together 5,000 to 15,000 people to carry out community-led, integrated strategies to meet basic needs. Community members at epicenters create and run their own development programs across sectors such as food security, nutrition, health, education, women's leadership, income-generation, and climate resilience. At the end of 2023, 78 epicenters had declared self-reliance after a multi-year partnership with The Hunger Project, meaning over 1.2 million community partners are now living in a self-reliant community where they have the confidence, capacity, and skills to act as agents of their own development and continue to make sustainable progress. In addition to epicenter sites, special project sites across Africa also utilize The Hunger Project's core mobilization methodologies in community mobilization and leadership development for sector-specific outcomes, such as community reforestation, nutrition, meaningful access to internet, inclusion of people with disabilities, water and sanitation, land conservation, and agricultural entrepreneurship.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,178,482 including grants of $ 5,564) (Revenue $ 0)

SOUTH ASIA - In India, THP works with empowered women interested in being elected to local government positions to meet the development needs of their communities. Across six states, The Hunger Project supports the leadership development of women leaders in local village councils (panchayats), each of them champions for gender equality, social and economic development, and nutrition. THP's Adolescent Girls Program teaches girls life skills, their rights, and the importance of active citizenship. In Bangladesh, THP mobilizes local "animators" (trained volunteers), youth, women leaders, and local government representatives across 166 unions, encompassing nearly 2,850 communities, to support peaceful, effective local democracy and meet the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Community partners design and implement holistic, bottom-up strategies focused on nutrition, active citizenship, peace, income generation, climate resilience, girls' rights, and more in order to achieve the SDGs in their communities.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 953,335 including grants of $ 40,761) (Revenue $ 0)

EDUCATION AND ADVOCACY - THP's program activities prioritize educating and mobilizing individuals and organizations to create commitment among a critical mass to a world without hunger and to transform thinking in centers of power. This includes public awareness campaigns around international days of significance like World Food Day, International Women's Day, and a special day created by The Hunger Project, World Hunger Day. It also includes hosting events and workshops and participating in national and international forums to promote gender-focused, community-led approaches to development, as well as the importance of systems change efforts that are holistic and address the root causes of hunger.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)
(Expenses $ 1,519,048 including grants of $ 554,550) (Revenue $ 0)

4e Total program service expenses 12,748,178

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
PART I, LINE 2:	THP adopts a risk-based approach to monitor grants. A risk-based approach to sub-recipient monitoring enables THP to assess an organization's internal controls, accounting system and funds control for two reasons: to determine the level of monitoring required as well as to identify areas for building capacity that would supplement those identified by the organizational development assessment. Grants provided to organizations within the United States are reviewed by the US office program partnership development team (PPD). The PPD team monitors the financial and programmatic performance of the sub-recipients and ensures that donor funds are spent in accordance with donor regulations. Internal reviews are periodically conducted to ensure continued compliance. The review process includes a combination of activities or actions, such as the review and verification of deliverables, financial and program progress reports, voucher verification, and site visits. In addition, federal award and compliance information is incorporated in the sub-agreement (e.g., mandatory standard provisions, other regulations, financial reporting requirements and template, audit requirements).
