At the same time, this SEL approach strengthens their literacy skills. MAXCourage's overarching vision is to provide a model ELA curriculum which empowers students to learn about and continue to exhibit courage in their lives, and which inspires others to make bolder and more courageous choices.

MAXCourage was initially created to serve Boston Public Schools. In recent years, MAXCourage has been continued in Boston, while expanding to Massachusetts Gateway Cities and New England states. Approximately 6,000 children worldwide participate in the program each year. Since 2021, MAXCourage has expanded national participation by 88% to meet the demand for teachers and students SEL and ELA academic needs post pandemic. Additionally, a new out-of-school time program, the MAXCourage Writer's Workshop Series, offered access to curriculum and an essay contest for those in after-school programs and summer camps. The annual publication of student essays, The Courage of Children: Boston and Beyond, reflected this growth with a book that was 33% larger than in prior years.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	Accounting standards provide detailed guidance for the financial statement recognition, measurement and disclosure of uncertain tax positions recognized in an organization's financial statements. Under these standards, an organization is required to recognize the financial statement impact of a tax position when it is more likely than not that the position will not be sustained upon examination. MAXCourage has evaluated its significant tax positions against the criteria established and believes there are no such tax positions requiring accounting recognition.
