| Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used | An annual report is required from all organizations that have received a grant from the organization, which is reviewed by staff and then reviewed with the Board of Directors. The report requires a narrative and financial account (in U.S. Dollars) of what was accomplished by the expenditure of the grant funds during the period covered by the grant. To ensure compliance by grantees, they are required to sign a grant contract that binds them to provide a report on activities performed with the grant. The organization holds multiple telephonic conference calls to discuss programs among grantees and uncover challenges and successes. In addition, the organization holds one in-person conference which all grantees are required to attend. MAZON also uses site visits, phone calls, emails and letter communications to monitor the grantees' activities and expenditures. |

| Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization's Mission (Continued) | For almost 40 years, MAZON has been committed to ensuring that vulnerable people have access to the resources they need to be able to put food on the table. MAZON is a leading voice in the United States and in Israel, on anti-hunger issues, especially those that involve populations or problems that have been previously overlooked or ignored. MAZON recognized the importance of ensuring that food insecure Americans and Israelis have access to nutritious food now, while also working to develop and advance long-term solutions to hunger. |
| Form 990, Part III, Line 4a- Program Service Accomplishments(Continued) | MAZON is committed to shining a spotlight on issues and populations where the government and other organizations have yet to turn their focus. The mainstream response to hunger leaves the unique challenges of too many Americans overlooked, underfunded, or disregarded, including by government nutrition supplement programs like SNAP and WIC. MAZON understands that blanket solutions will not meet the needs of every community, and that sometimes, special focus is required to remove the unique barriers some of our most vulnerable communities face in accessing adequate, nutritious food. Unique Barriers Require Thoughtful Solutions: MAZON's Jewish values have led us to a unique role in the anti-hunger movement: working to support under-addressed issues and communities. Not only does MAZON shine a spotlight on these pressing concerns; we draw the attention of policymakers, anti-hunger organizations, and the public to the unique roadblocks standing in the way to food security. Our work ensures that there are meaningful and lasting solutions that overcome these challenges. This strategy requires MAZON to be nimble and able to identify which issues need our particular expertise and for how long. Currently, MAZON is spotlighting the unique barriers facing communities such as active-duty military and their families, veterans, Indigenous communities, single mothers, LGBTQ older adults, college students, and the people of Puerto Rico and the territories. MAZON listens to, learns from, and works in solidarity with these communities to realize change through three interrelated strategies: Education: MAZON works closely with synagogue partners, schools, and organizations to educate individuals and communities about the scope of hunger and how we can work together to end it. Through groundbreaking experiential education programs and activities like This is Hunger and its innovative virtual experience, The Hunger Museum, MAZON is shifting the narrative about who is vulnerable to hunger and why. We are creating a powerful network of anti-hunger advocates across the country. Capacity-Building: Throughout MAZON's history, we have invested in system changing efforts across the U.S., recognizing that states have a great deal of import and influence in helping to ensure that all those in their communities can feed themselves and their families. MAZON makes deep, multi-year investments in emerging anti-hunger organizations across the United States, partnering with them to advance public education, community organizing, and policy proposals to eliminate hunger. Advocacy: For nearly 40 years, MAZON has been the leading Jewish voice in advancing lasting policy solutions to reverse the course of hunger in this country. MAZON's advocacy and expertise has led to meaningful change for Americans of all faiths and backgrounds. From drafting and championing critical policies in important legislation, to testifying to Congress, to hosting meaningful conversations with legislators MAZON is a strong advocate, speaking truth to power at every level of government. FY 2024 Highlights: Outreach MAZON has hosted numerous tours of its groundbreaking all virtual experience: The Hunger Museum including two national community-wide tours. MAZON integrated the program Challah for Hunger into its work in 2023. During its first year we had 38 active chapters, and we've gotten a lot of inquiries over this last year for new chapters, and expect to start the 2024 academic year with 46 chapters across the US. Advocacy During 2023 and 2024 MAZON has prioritized securing meaningful support for the populations that form its advocacy focus in the coming Farm Bill. The Farm Bill is a comprehensive piece of federal legislation that authorizes and define the nutrition safety net for 5 years at a time. The Farm Bill will expire in 2024 and a new Bill must be passed. For nearly a decade, MAZON has been leading the national effort to address hunger among military families and succeeded in adding an amendment to the National Defense Authorization Act, to remove one of the most persistent and egregious barriers to SNAP access for those in the military. When the provision failed, MAZON added it to its Farm Bill priorities. MAZON's support of Native-led policy change to advance food security and food sovereignty in Indian Country is rooted in recognizing that Tribal Nations are sovereign and self-determining nations. Allowing Tribes to directly administer these assistance programs would provide them the same flexibilities that states have to manage the programs and shift resources when necessary during times of crisis. MAZON made this a priority for its advocacy on the Farm |

| | Bill.MAZON is committed to confronting the painful reality of food insecurity among veterans educating various stakeholders about the unique needs and barriers facing the men and women who served our country. Much of this work focuses on uplifting legislation and programmatic solutions to close the veteran SNAP participation gap, including adjusting SNAPs consideration of U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) disability ratings, supporting veteran SNAP outreach initiatives, and exempting veterans from work requirements for the purposes of qualifying for SNAP. Despite their status as United States citizens, Congress cut Puerto Rico from SNAP in 1981 and replaced it with the limited and under-funded NAP program. This disparity means that food assistance is capped at a set funding level instead of automatically expanding and contracting, like SNAP does, as need fluctuates. MAZON has made transitioning NAP to SNAP a priority in its Farm Bill priorities In recent years, MAZON and our partners have achieved historic advancements in Israel. We lead a powerful anti-hunger advocacy coalition of 17 partner organizations, and our coalition recently secured funding to address food insecurity in Israel's national budget a profound milestone that sets an important new precedent. Even during a time of great political instability in Israel, we continue to raise the visibility of food insecurity, which is now a central discussion point in Israeli civil society as well as government ministries and Knesset committees. We were a leading force in the formation of Israel's National Council of Food Security, and we continue to build the infrastructure to position food security and long-term, government-led solutions to end hunger for all Israelis as a prominent priority issue for both the Israeli government and civil society.MAZON continues to invest in state-based synagogue civic engagement, and , MAZON engages synagogue partners transforming them into effective centers of anti hunger efforts to advance the interests and dignity of those struggling with food insecurity. During the summers of 2023 and 2024 MAZON partnered with synagogues in several states on a MAZON Hunger Action Month meeting with members of Congress during August recess and advancing vital Farm Bill priorities.In 2024 MAZON mad3e new grants to 52 local anti-hunger partner organizations across the United States and Israel, expanding its investment in fighting food insecurity. This includes new grants to partners in Arkansas, Georgia, Kansas, and Oklahoma, as well as organizations advocating for the people of Puerto Rico, Indigenous communities in the U.S., and vulnerable populations in Israel. MAZON has invested over $17 million in 19 states, Puerto Rico, Indian Country, and Israel since 2018. In 2024 MAZON made several grants through its Quick Reaction Fund which enables us, and our partners, to respond quickly to opportunities in the public sphere, providing the anti-hunger movement with rapid access to small investments of revenue that can help capitalize on these opportunities, outside of normal, lengthier grant processes. |
| Form 990, Part III, Line 4a- Program Service Accomplishments(Continued) | Particularly since the COVID-19 pandemic exacerbated the hunger crisis in America, MAZON is shining a light on hunger among single mothers who often face heightened barriers to food security and economic stability. National data estimates that 80% of single parents in the U.S. are women, and 40% of these single mothers are experiencing food insecurity. Rising food prices, the cost of childcare, and state restrictions have all posed disproportionate economic setbacks for single mothers that create additional barriers to accessing food. MAZON is focused on preventing any additional hurdles to SNAP eligibility criteria for single mothers and advancing policies that address the childcare cost component. MAZON is working to illuminate hunger disparities facing the people of Puerto Rico who currently cannot access the same nutrition assistance as their fellow Americans living stateside. Though a huge portion of the island's population lives in poverty, Congress cut Puerto Rico from SNAP in 1981, so U.S. citizens living on the land can now only access the limited and under-funded Nutrition Assistance Program (NAP). MAZON is advocating for Congress to transition Puerto Rico back to SNAP so they can access adequate benefits that can expand during times of great need.In recent years, MAZON and our partners have achieved historic advancements in Israel. We lead a powerful anti-hunger advocacy coalition of 17 partner organizations, and our coalition recently secured funding to address food insecurity in Israel's national budget a profound milestone that sets an important new precedent. Even during a time of great political instability in Israel, we continue to raise the visibility of food insecurity, which is now a central discussion point in Israeli civil society as well as government ministries and Knesset committees. We were a leading force in the formation of Israel's National Council of Food Security, and we continue to build the infrastructure to position food security and long-term, government-led solutions to end hunger for all Israelis as a prominent priority issue for both the Israeli government and civil society.MAZON continues to invest in state-based synagogue civic engagement, which has become an even more urgent focus in the last few years, as polarization continues to grow in our country. As such, MAZON engages synagogue partners transforming them into effective centers of anti-hunger efforts to advance the interests and dignity of those struggling with food insecurity. Our synagogue partners learn that addressing hunger is rooted in Jewish values and that the organized Jewish community plays a critical role in the fight against hunger. In this work, strong local leaders emerge, congregations develop a deeper understanding of hunger and its causes, experience meaningful civic engagement, and acquire an understanding of the complex causes of hunger and the programs and policies that address its solutions. Through MAZON, these Jewish leaders forge new alliances to address hunger at the state and local levels and elevate the importance of ending hunger in their local communities.For example, this year, MAZON worked closely with synagogue partners, clergy leaders, and anti-hunger partners in Colorado to support the first-ever state ballot initiative securing free school meals. MAZON was proud to spearhead Jewish community efforts as a member of the statewide coalition that was pushing for this historic ballot measure, urging more states to follow Colorado's bold example and provide universal free meals so that every child has the opportunity to learn.MAZONS expertise in seeding, supporting, and strengthening the anti-hunger movement around the country uniquely positions it to reinvest in those ecosystems where populations are most vulnerable and the anti-hunger infrastructures are the most under-resourced. It is in these communities that MAZON has an out-sized influence, impact and probability of successfully growing anti-hunger programs to more reliably respond to the growing needs of those who struggle in their communities. MAZONS most recent partnership grants in the U.S. expanded our Emerging Advocacy Fund to a total of 52 partner organizations in 19 states and Puerto Rico. Our goal for these investments is to nurture a community of anti-hunger advocates who are interconnected and motivated to share best practices, successes, challenges, resources, and technical assistance. This year, MAZONS partner organizations continued to work in support of programs and policies to alleviate hunger in their states with a particular focus on equity. Many of them did so within the context of persistent and pervasive hunger facing uphill battles, but they remain committed to their work and the people they serve and they are supported in these efforts with the knowledge that MAZON is invested not only in seeing immediate gains, but in building their capacity for long-term success. In addition, MAZONS Quick Reaction Fund enables us, and our partners, to respond quickly to opportunities in the public sphere, providing the anti-hunger movement with rapid access to small investments of revenue that can help capitalize on these |
