Explanation: Direct lobbying: Had 3 full-time contract lobbyists in Olympia during state legislative session that went January March 2024. Three staff members met semi-regularly with legislators, but were not full time lobbyists. CEO and one staff directly lobbied Seattle City Council and King County Council on matters related to health and human services budget. Six staff met with Seattle City Council members and two met with King County Council members on matters related to program funding. Four met with members of the State's Department of Social and Health Services and Department of Revenue on legislative rulemaking and administrative issues. Grassroots: Held citizen lobby day at state capitol on MLK Day, published legislative agenda online, encouraged community members, staff, and volunteers to contact their lawmakers and local council members through email alerts, text alerts, and calls to action on social media.
