Return Reference	Explanation
Part II-B, Line 1i - Other Activities Description	Our political campaign activities include advocacy to the public for issues of importance to RCD and the clients and constituents we serve. We provided education to elected and appointed officials regarding LGBTQ and HIV communities and issues impacting this community. We provide education to schools, corporations and nonprofits. At times, we will make a direct ask to a corporation to support non-discrimination legislation. We provide trainings to government entities, such as police, law enforcement, public schools and conduct nonpartisan public education and training about participation in the political process. We encourage people to vote. We rent, at fair market value, facilities to organizations, legislators and candidates. This is done as an on-going activity and not arranged only for a particular candidate or party. RCD conducts nonpartisan get-out-the-vote and voter registration drives.

The Center did not conduct any unrelated business activities that would be subject to federal income taxes and had no uncertain tax positions. Therefore, no tax provision or liability has been reported. GAAP requires the evaluation of tax positions taken in the course of preparing the Centers tax returns and recognition of a tax liability (or asset) if the Center has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Center, and has concluded that as of September 30, 2024, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements.
