Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	MAM grants funds to support the East Spring Branch Food Pantry via monthly payments from MAM's Family Assistance checking account. MAM refers clients to the Pantry. The Pantry Director provides regular updates on the status of pantry activities, trends in food insecurity, numbers served, and new partnerships. MAM provides emergency financial assistance for rent, mortgage, utilities, and other household expenses to members of the community who report a financial crisis. The scope of services and procedures varies by individual program, but all include gathering documentation from the client to determine identity, home address, and eligibility for services. All payments are made directly to the vendor by check or credit card. MAM employs a variety of means to determine the results of the financial assistance, primarily through follow-up communication to clients and landlords within 90 days of the last assistance payment.
