Form 990, Part III, Line 4a	Program Service Accomplishments Raise The Barr RTB continued its mission to support low-income single parent students and their children with direct services while the parent is enrolled in workforce training and/or higher education programs. RTBs direct service model pairs financial support paired with programming that includes coaching, workshops, and networking experiences, aimed at improving college access and degree attainment, career readiness, financial acumen, mental health, and family wellness. With an emphasis on partnerships with higher education leaders and community organizations, RTB is specifically focused on access to safe, stable, and affordable housing and basic needs, so single parent students and their children can thrive their educational programs and achieve their goals. RTB expanded its programming with two new institutional-partners and in one new geographic region in 2024, using a replicable and scalable model that can be integrated into any community who sees value in the investment of the future of all family types.
