| Part V           | PartandLinenumber:,Explanation:  Part I Line 1,During 2024 the Founding Director personally advanced funds to support the organizations ongoing operations and program activities during a period of cash flow instability caused by delayed grant payments from a major funder. These advances included approximately 12,600 in expenses charged to personal credit cards and a personal loan of 32,404 obtained through Discover Bank. The organization was unable to secure financing in its own name and had limited alternative funding options available at the time. The Founding Director assumed this financial obligation to ensure continuity of services meet organizational commitments and prevent disruption or suspension of programs while awaiting the release of committed funding. The decision was made in good faith and in the best interest of maintaining the organizations operations during a period of financial uncertainty. Funds were used solely exclusively for organizational purposes and were not compensation to the Founding Director. |
