MISSION	Twin rotors mission is dedicated to serving warriors who serve and/or served their country both on the home front and overseas. The organization seeks to assess, advocate, assist and/or refer veterans, all branches of the military, first responders and their families to available public and private resources to aid warriors to improve their quality of life. By December 2024, approximately 350 warriors engaged in opportunities such as equine assisted activities, music therapy, life coaching and military reboot. Operation camaraderie is a unique program tailored to allow for situations such as a personalized action plan. All engagement activities are strategically geared to address mental wellness, mental health, post traumatic stress disorder and suicide.
